

Management Plan – Bird Island Lamberts Bay

Project Summary:

FOOTPRINT Environmental Services was appointed to provide facilitation and public participation services for the Protected Area Management Plan for Bird Island in Lamberts Bay one of a few breeding colonies of Cape Gannets on the South African coast and the only colony that is connected to the mainland. FOOTPRINT provided the client CapeNature with a full public participation report and the project was successfully concluded.

Client:

Cape Nature